Coastal Fall Farm Tour Success! Bartenfelder Farms and Fox Meadow Produce

We had such a great time, despite the atypical October heat, visiting our farm friends last Tuesday. We started off at Fox Meadow Produce where we were schooled on hydroponic cucumber growing. This farm does a little bit of everything and also showed us their vineyard operation and a few bottles of their estate wine! Next we headed to Bartenfelder's who grows just about any type of produce that grows well in Maryland. We got our hands dirty harvesting turnips and radishes to take home. The farm was decked out for Halloween. They even do a haunted hay ride! It was lots of fun for all and a great excuse to spend a day outdoors learning about our local food system.
